Happenings

- ◆ We want to share our warmest blessing on all you faithful mothers who show us every day what it means to be God's woman and to faithfully fulfill your responsibility of nurturing the next generation and to keep your husbands happy and successful in their role. You are indeed valuable far above rubies!
- ◆ Tuesday is our day to serve at World Missionary Press. If you would like to give back to the Lord in service, this is a great opportunity. Check with the Christners for ride information.
- ◆ Tomorrow is the last day to get your registration forms back to Gospel Echoes Team if you are planning to be part of the group going into the Muskegon Prison on July 8. See Bianca Jones if you are still in need of the forms.
- ◆ I am really excited about our services next weekend! The program will especially be grand for the children so you will be sure not to want to miss! The kids will be downstairs for both service times next week as they will be transported to Cambodia as real life missionaries. You will have an airplane ride, land in a foreign land, be served food you have never heard of, and ... I better not tell you the rest, but be sure, you will be very disappointed if you weren't here. The adults will be hearing from Heap Him, sharing his very interesting story of survival under the Khmer Rouge and his subsequent escape. He will also explain the work they are involved in with Lina's Hope School and then share a short message. Adults will have their regular Sunday School time, but there will be no regular class time for the children.
- ◆ Welcome home to Julia Hawkes and David Gingerich for their Spring break. However, we won't be seeing much of David as their family leaves today for an extended trip to see friends in Bolivia. Our prayers and blessings go with them.
- ◆ The Greg Dole family is back in Michigan! We are planning for them to spend time with us beginning May 24 through May 28. There is a sign up sheet for appointed times if you would like to spend some individual time and have them into your home. They will be presenting our program on Sunday morning, May 28.
